The word "Audit" for this Article X shall mean "an extensive compilation, review or audit of the association's books and records."

(c) Review. The Audit Committee shall conduct its review and present its report to the Board of Directors during January each year or, in the event the fiscal year ends on a date other than December 31st, it shall conduct its review and present its report to the Board of Directors during the thirty (30) days immediately after the end of said year. The association documents and all books and records kept on behalf of the association are available for examination and copying by a member or such member's authorized agent during business hours and upon reasonable notice to the association and for a reasonable charge, except for privileged or confidential information.

ARTICLE XII ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each member is obligated to pay to the Association such sums as are assessed against the members under the terms of said Declaration, which assessments are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be deemed delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the highest rate allowed by law, and the Association may bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, with costs of such action, including reasonable attorney's fees, to be added to the amount of such assessment. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by nonuse of the common area or abandonment of his Lot.

ARTICLE XIII COMPLIANCE, ENFORCEMENT, FINES AND PENALTIES

Section 1. Default and Remedies. (a) A default in or failure to comply with any of the terms, conditions, obligations, and provisions of the Declaration, these Bylaws, the Articles, or the rules and regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time, by any Lot Owner or Occupant, shall be grounds for relief that may include, without intending to limit the same or to constitute an election of remedies, an action to recover fines and penalties as set in these Bylaws, sums due for damages, an injunction, or any combination thereof, and which relief may be sought by the Association, an aggrieved Lot Owner, or by any person or class of persons adversely affected. Also, if any member fails to perform any obligation under the Declaration, these Bylaws, the Articles or such rules and regulations, then the Association may, but is not obligated to, perform the same for the member's account, and for such purpose may enter upon his Lot, may make necessary repairs, advance expenses or other sums necessary to cure the default, and for such expenses and costs may collect all such sums against the Lot owned by such defaulting member.

(b) The association also shall be entitled to suspend the right of a defaulting Lot Owner to vote as a member of the Association until the default is cured and may suspend the voting rights of and right to use of the recreational facilities of a member during any period in which such member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended, after notice of hearing as hereinafter set forth, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of published rules and regulations; but provided, however, that the right of an owner to ingress to and egress from his lot shall not be impaired;

Section 2. Remedy of Abatement in Additional to Other Remedies. In the event a member fails to effect the cure specified by the Board where the default is a structure, thing, or condition existing in or on the premises of the member's Lot, the Board, or its duly authorized representative, shall have the right to enter upon the premises of the member's Lot in which, on which, or as to which, such default exists, and summarily to abate and remove, at the defaulting member's expense (and collect the costs as if an assessment), the structure, thing, or condition constituting the default, and the Board, the Association, and their agents, employees, and representatives shall not thereby be deemed guilty of any manner of trespass.

Section 3. Injunction. Any person, class of persons or the Association is entitled to seek relief for any such default or failure and may obtain a temporary restraining order, injunction or similar relief, without first using the procedure established herein, if such default or failure creates an emergency or a situation dangerous to persons or property.

Section 4. Procedures for fines and suspension of planned community privileges or services. Prior to the implementation of any fine, or the suspension of voting rights for the infraction of the Declaration, By Laws or Rules and Regulations, a hearing pursuant to the following procedure shall be undertaken.

A hearing shall be held in compliance with NCGS 47F-3-107.1 before the Board of Directors or an adjudicatory panel appointed by the Board of Directors to determine if any lot owner should be fined or if planned community privileges or services should be suspended pursuant to the powers granted to the association in G.S. 47F-3-102(11) and (12). Any adjudicatory panel appointed by the Board of Directors shall be composed of members of the association who are not officers of the association or members of the Board of Directors. The lot owner charged shall be given notice of the charge, opportunity to be heard and to present evidence, and notice of the decision. If it is decided that a fine should be imposed, a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) may be imposed for the violation and without further hearing, for each day more than five days after the decision that the violation occurs. Such fines shall be assessments secured by liens under G.S. 47F-3-116. If it is decided that a suspension of planned community privileges or services should be imposed, the suspension may be continued without further hearing until the violation or delinquency is cured. The lot owner may appeal the decision of an adjudicatory panel to the full Board of Directors by delivering written notice of appeal to the Board of Directors within 15 days after the date of the decision. The Board of Directors may affirm, vacate, or modify the prior decision of the adjudicatory body.

Section 5. Recover of Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a member, the person, class of persons or Association bringing an action against an alleged defaulting member shall be entitled to recover the costs of such proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as may be allowed by the Court, with interest thereon at the highest rate allowed by law.

Section 6. Nonwaiver of Covenants. The failure of the Association or of any member thereof to enforce any terms, provision, right, covenants or condition that may be granted by the Declaration, these Bylaws, the Articles, the rules and regulations, as the same may from time to time be amended, shall not constitute a waiver or abrogation of the right of the Association or a member to enforce such term, provision, right, covenants, or condition in the future, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches thereof that may have occurred.

Section 7. Costs and Fines Enforced as Assessment Liens. Any fine, costs or expenses hereunder shall be enforced as if an assessment lien.

ARTICLE XIV AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting or at a special meeting of the members, providing that notice of such special meeting shall state the content of such amendment, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all members entitled to vote.

Section 2. In the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these By-Laws, the Declaration shall control.

The foregoing were adopted as the By-Laws of the Association, a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, at the first meeting of the Incorporators on FEBRUARY 2, 2009.
